GOP Is Poised To Repeal Laws OK'd by Dems

Ohio Republicans Seek Changes in New Session of Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some of the legislative battles fought two years ago seem scheduled for repeat performances in the coming months of this year's session. Republicans already have introduced several bills to repeal acts of the Democratic-dominated General Assembly of 1959.

One such repealer offered by Rep. D. O. Taber, R - Gallia, would strip from the Highway Department the right to borrow trust-fund money for advance purchase of right of way. The 1959 session gave the department authority to borrow from various state retirement funds and from the trust fund of the Bureau of Workmen's Compensation.

The Taber repealer was offered Thursday just before weekend adjournment. The House is scheduled to meet again at 7:30 p.m. and the Senate at 8 p.m. Monday. Another flock of bill introductions is expected then.

Another repealer already in the works is one which would junk the new Department of Industrial and Economic Development, reduce it to the division status it had before 1959 and put it back under control of the Ohio Department of Commerce.

Companion measures offered by Rep. Edmund G. James, R-Noble, Thursday offered cities two new avenues of taxation through which they could solve some of their own money problems.

One of the James measures would permit cities to levy a special tax—as high as 3 per cent—on gas, electric, telephone and water bills. The other would permit cities to require a special auto license—in addition to the state's annual $10 fee—of up to $5 a year.

James came up with similar proposals in the Democratic legislature of 1959, but they got nowhere. The 1959 legislature adopted a $2.50 state license fee increase, but Gov. Michael V. DiSalle vetoed it.

Sen. John W. Brown, R-Medina, former interim governor, came up with an eyebrow raiser. He proposed the state prohibit the use of any so-called truth serum to obtain information in connection with obtaining convictions, reprieves, commutations and pardons.

The measure obviously was directed at Gov. DiSalle's recent commutation of Edythe Klump's death sentence after she told her story, under the influence of sodium amytal, of the death of Mrs. Louise Bergen in 1958.

Brown proposes a minimum $500 fine or up to 30 days in jail, or both, for anyone who administers a truth serum in connection with criminal cases or for anyone who causes such a serum to be used.

DiSalle snorted at Brown's proposal, saying that "it is a cheap way to get some cheap publicity for a rather mediocre politician." Brown served 11 days as interim governor when Frank J. Lausche left the statehouse for a seat in the U.S. Senate in January, 1957.

The brawling DiSalle declared that "Brown is one man in public life I wouldn't believe with or without sodium amytal." The governor contended that Brown's proposal would be unconstitutional since the state constitution specifically grants absolute clemency power to the governor "upon conditions as he may think proper."

DiSalle recalled that during Brown's 11 days in the governor's chair, Brown commuted five sentences of life imprisonment, only one of which had been recommended favorably by the Pardon Commission. Two of the cases were never considered by the commission, DiSalle reported.

6 Coast Guardsmen Missing After Storm

ASTORIA, Or. (AP)—A howling storm capsized two Coast Guard vessels at the mouth of the Columbia River Thursday night. The Coast Guard said six men are missing.

Three of them had been rescued once, and were being towed to seeming safety when mountainous waves snapped a tow line and they disappeared into the darkness.

Kennedy, Rusk Hold Parley on Foreign Policy

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy confers today with the new administration's secretary of state, Dean Rusk, on foreign policy problems and organization matters.

Rusk flew to Palm Beach Thursday night after indicating in Washington, in testimony to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that the Kennedy regime plans no immediate sharp departures in dealing with trouble spots around the globe.

Kennedy and Rusk scheduled a

Kennedy Assets $10 Million

President-Elect Shifts To Government Bonds

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy appears to have investment assets valued at perhaps up to $10 million.

This was indicated Thursday night when it was disclosed that Kennedy has converted all of his investments over which he had control into government bonds—federal, state and municipal.

Pierre Salinger, his press secretary, told newsmen in response to questions that the president-elect's total holdings now consist of such bonds, plus the houses he owns in Washington and at Hyannis Port, Mass., and three trust funds set up for him and his brothers and sisters by their father, Joseph P. Kennedy.

Salinger said the president-elect's income from these trusts—set up in 1926, 1936 and 1949—amounts to about $100,000 annually, after taxes. The income before taxes reportedly is about $500,000 a year.

Assuming interest at the rate of about 4 to 5 per cent, the funds could have a principal value of close to $10 million. Kennedy has other holdings, including the undisclosed value of investments he has converted into government bonds.

His home in Washington's fashionable Georgetown area reportedly is valued at about $100,000. The Hyannis Port place is an additional asset.

Salinger refused to give figures on Kennedy's holdings beyond the income realized from the trust funds.

The three trusts are irrevocable, which means the president-elect has no control over investment of the principal. His mother reportedly is one of the trustees.

Huge Space Rocket Tower Is Unveiled

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The tower from which missilemen will service the Saturn super space rocket is a massive, complex structure reaching 310 feet.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration showed it off to newsmen for the first time Thursday, and they were impressed.

The 28-story steel tower dominates the Cape Canaveral skyline, dwarfing the 115-foot tall Atlas and Titan service gantries and the shorter structures for the Thor, Jupiter, Polaris, Redstone and Minuteman.

The Saturn rocket, which will begin testing here next fall, is the United States' biggest hope in the next few years for placing multi-payloads into orbit, landing instrument packages on the moon, Mars and Venus, and hurling manned spacecrafts around the globe and returning them to earth.

The Saturn tower was built by Kaiser Steel Co., for the Army Corps of Engineers. It cost $4 million.

It is completely self-supporting unit with its own power station, heating, air conditioning and lighting facilities, three elevators and five enclosed movable platforms from which the launch crew can service the 230-foot rocket at different levels. Each platform is the size of an average three-room house.

Ike Farewell on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—All three major networks will broadcast the farewell address by President Dwight D. Eisenhower next Tuesday night. The speech will be carried on ABC, CBS and NBC from 8:30 to 9 EST.

morning meeting and a luncheon session at the president-elect's ocean-front home.

Kennedy announced he is retaining two Eisenhower administration officials.

Joseph Charyk will continue to serve as undersecretary of the Air Force.

Thomas D. Morris, now an assistant director of the Budget Bureau, will be assistant secretary of defense for supply and logistics.

The president-elect Thursday night chose Edward Gudemman, Chicago investment banker, to be undersecretary of commerce.

Gudemman, 54, is a former vice president and at present a director of Sears, Roebuck and Co. Last year he became a general partner in the investment banking firm of Lehman Brothers. He is a graduate of Harvard College.

In his Washington testimony, Rusk was questioned by senators about his views on Red China, Cuba, summit conferences, American fliers being held by the Soviet Union, and U.S. relations with the nation's allies.

Indications are Rusk will have clear sailing in winning Senate confirmation of his nomination, which Kennedy will formally submit after taking office a week from today.

On Communist China, Rusk said he sees no present prospect of the United States establishing normal diplomatic relations with the Red regime. But he said, "The presence in mainland China of a large and powerful force is one of the facts... we cannot ignore."

As for the anti-American Castro government of Cuba, Rusk said he is very much disturbed by that situation. He called for intensified efforts to get the truth to the people of Latin America, through the United States Information Agency.

Rusk left open the possibility of Kennedy attending a summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev—provided there was some hope such talks would be fruitful.

He said the new administration

Ohio Highway Needs Detailed

$1.7 Billion Required To Complete Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—It will cost an estimated $1,754,753,000 to complete the interstate highway program in Ohio, Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller told Congress Thursday.

He said the total cost of the 41,000-mile superhighway network throughout the nation is expected to be $41 billion.

But Ohio Highway Director Everett S. Preston said in Columbus Thursday night that the federal estimate for the entire highway network probably is too low, if the amount allowed Ohio is any indication. The federal government pays 90 per cent of construction costs.

Preston said his department told the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads it would cost an estimated $1.9 billion to complete the interstate program in Ohio, including the state's 10 per cent share of costs. But the bureau, he said, rejected $88.4 million of that estimate.

Preston believes the bureau was wrong in chopping off the $88.4 million and that it will take that much over the bureau estimate to complete the job.

If Ohio is any yardstick, he added, the same situation probably holds true in other states. The bureau, he said, deliberately tried to keep its total nationwide estimate on the low side.

The Ohio figure presented to Congress is the amount of federal and state money that still must be provided. The federal government already has allotted Ohio so much for its interstate program, $143 million this fiscal year alone, according to Preston.

U.S. Unemployment Total Increases to 4 1/2 Million

'YOU'LL HAVE TO DECIDE'—Said the president-elect to the former president in this Palm Beach, Fla., get-together. "Well, sir, do you have any advice for me now that we're starting these new responsibilities?" Replied the former president to the president-elect, "Every ex-president always is ready to give a new president advice. You'll have to decide what is good advice."

Laotian Pilots Use U.S. Planes For Raids on Reds Third Day

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The Laotian government's four newly acquired planes from the United States pounded the pro-Communist rebels' artillery positions 70 miles north of Vientiane today for the third straight day.

No reports were available so far on the damage but military experts said the Laotian pilots—trained in France and Thailand—probably would need more of flying to sharpen their aim.

So far there was no sign of air retaliation from the Soviet Union, Communist China or North Viet Nam, which support the Pathet Lao rebels. But Western intelligence sources reported an old model Soviet spotter plane, was observed directing rebel artillery fire on Monday, the day before the United States delivered the four propeller-driven trainer planes the government forces are using.

Use of the planes for attack missions raised fears among British and French diplomats here that the Soviets or Red Chinese would supply combat planes for use against the anti-Communist forces.

The planes were reported attacking in the area of the Nam

Columbus Dispatch Reporters Curbed By Feuding DiSalle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle fanned a feud with Columbus Dispatch newsmen today.

The governor, miffed at what he termed "distortion" in some Columbus Dispatch news stories about state affairs, told Cabinet members that when Dispatch reporters ask them about "anything" that they "put it in writing and keep a copy."

When a Dispatch reporter asked what the governor will do at his daily press conferences about writing out answers to Dispatch reporters questions, the governor said: "I'll take care of my press conferences."

DiSalle told the Cabinet members that "it is not intended that you not reply, answer or give full information to Dispatch reporters. He said he wanted them to give "full answers."

Most of Nation's Weather Is Mild

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unseasonably mild temperatures and fair skies dominated much of the continent Thursday. Precipitation was generally confined to extreme areas.

Rainy weather continued to dampen the Pacific coast from northern California to Puget Sound, though amounts were light. Showers and thundershowers also continued in Louisiana and north-eastern Texas. Port Arthur, Tex., had more than 2.75 inches in 24 hours.

Elsewhere, fair skies extended from the southwest into the north-east.

Nation's Idle May Climb To 5.6 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unemployment rose by half a million in December to 4,500,000—high for December since 1940.

Employment declined by 1,173,000 to 66,009,000.

Announcing these figures today, the Labor Department also reported that the rate of unemployment to the total work force rose from 6.3 per cent in November to 6.8 per cent. This is the highest December rate since 1940. The percentages are seasonally adjusted.

Seymour Wolfbein, Labor Department manpower expert, said that the idle total is going up further this winter.

Wolfbein said that if the seasonally adjusted 6.8 per cent idle rate remains unchanged the unemployed total will increase by one million to 5 1/2 million during January.

On this same basis of assuming only seasonal factors, without continued worsening of factory employment, Wolfbein said that the prospective idle totals will be 5.6 million in February, 5.4 million in March and 4.9 million in April. The spring season generally brings improvement because the warmer weather permits construction and other outdoor work.

An indication how unemployment has mounted since the mid-December date, when the 4.5 million unemployment was recorded, can be seen in unemployment compensation claims.

These increased by 600,000 from Dec. 10 to Dec. 31, and reached a record December total of approximately three million.

December usually brings some decline in employment and increase is about triple the increase that would be regarded as normal for the month. The drop in employment also was extra-seasonal.

For the first time in a year, the employment total was smaller than the corresponding total a year ago.

The number of persons idle for 15 weeks or longer—the long-term unemployed—remained at approximately one million for the third straight month. Nearly half of these workers have been unable to find work for 27 weeks or longer—a half year.

The unemployment rate for married men reached 5.1 per cent in December compared with 3.6 per cent a year earlier, a significant change because of family responsibilities.

250 Disabled Veterans To See Kennedy Show

WASHINGTON (AP)—About 250 disabled veterans, military hospital patients and Medal of Honor winners are getting free $100 tickets to the preinaugural show being staged by Frank Sinatra and Peter Lawford.

A spokesman said today patients will be selected from Bethesda Naval Hospital, Walter Reed Army Hospital and hospitals at nearby Andrews Air Force Base and Ft. Belvoir.

State Welfare Agency Chief Fails on Job, To Be Replaced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert Canary, chief of the Social Administration Division in the State Welfare Department, will be replaced Feb. 1, Welfare Director May Gorman said today.

Mrs. Gorman said she will move John Henle, chief of blind services, into Canary's $11,200-a-year job.

"There hasn't been the progress in Mr. Canary's division that I've wanted," she said. "Everything that has been done has been done from the department executive level."

Repeated conferences with Canary over the past two years failed to bring about the progress she feels is necessary, Mrs. Gorman said. She added that Canary always has been very agreeable, but has failed to do anything about her suggestions.

Mrs. Gorman reported she told Canary Jan. 2 that he will be replaced and allowed him a month in which to find a new job. In addition, he has about two months

Uruguay Boots Envoys for Cuba, Soviet

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—The Uruguayan government has ordered the Cuban ambassador and the Soviet Embassy's first secretary out of the country, charging they were connected with pro-Castro demonstrations and street fights.

The expulsion order was voted Thursday night by Uruguay's 9-man governing council, which reportedly is split 5-4 against an outright break in diplomatic relations with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

The decision declaring Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia Inchausti and Soviet First Secretary Mikhail K. Samoilov persona non grata brought still another demonstration by admirers of Castro. A crowd of about 4,000 gathered in Montevideo's streets, shouting "Cuba yes! Yankees no!"

A force of 1,400 police wearing steel helmets prevented any violence.

The governing council acted after police stormed into Communist headquarters here Wednesday, and arrested 139 persons and seized documents.

Officials said the raid was on a judge's order to arrest persons who beat an anti-Castro partisan to death in front of the headquarters. So far no one has been charged with the death.

The man was killed in a fight that spread over 20 blocks Tuesday night when about 1,000 Castro adherents tried to break up an anti-Castro rally of about 3,000. Scores were injured.

The pro-Castro demonstrations have been building up here while the government debated whether to break relations with Cuba. In addition to the United States, Peru, Guatemala and the Dominican Republic have cut their diplomatic link with the Castro regime.

Haiti, Nicaragua, Paraguay and Colombia have called their ambassadors home from Havana. Castro repeatedly has urged that the masses in other Latin American countries join the fight.

Altar of Church Is Stolen by Organ Salesman

CLEVELAND (AP)—An organ salesman accused of stealing an altar from the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church was arrested Thursday.

Police said Albert Price, 36, part-owner of the Woods Organ Co., and three other men took the 20-foot hand-carved oak altar and three statues from the church.

Price was arrested 30 minutes later as he stood in front of the church watching firemen practice drills in a field across the way. Officers said they found the altar at the organ store and had the three men who had helped take it return it. The men, employees of Price, were not held.

The church is within the bounds of an urban renewal project and is slated to be torn down. Police said Price told them he was taking the altar "before vandals got it" and explained he planned to use the wood from it to make an organ cabinet.

Ohio GOP Girl Invited to Dem Affair

EATON, Ohio (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon's personal page during the Republican national convention last summer says she has been invited to speak at a Democratic inauguration dinner in Washington next Thursday.

But 16-year-old Kathy Sherrill said Thursday night she wishes no more publicity about the invitation because of adverse reaction from fellow Republicans. However, she will accept, she said.

Kathy, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Sherrill of Eaton, said she expected to receive a letter of confirmation today from the people in Washington who invited her.

She said she understands her speech will be sandwiched in between those of a senator and federal judge. The only reason she's accepting, she said, is for the sake of the experience of addressing such a gathering.

It was for experience's sake, also, she added that she sought to become a page at the Republican national convention. When her application was not accepted, she wrote directly to Nixon three days before the convention and, soon after, received word that she could be a page.

It wasn't until she got to the convention that she discovered she was to be the personal page of the vice president.

Fire Strikes In Darbyville

The Charles Huffer residence in Darbyville was damaged by fire today. The blaze was reported at 10:30 a. m.

Williamsport Fire Chief Warren Wright said damage was estimated at about $250. He said the blaze possibly was caused by a defective chimney.

Chief Wright said damage was confined to the upper part of the house. No one was injured.

The Williamsport department dispatched a tanker and a pumper to the scene. The Ashville-Harrison department also was on the scene.

RUGGED WORK — Maintenance workers had quite a job on their hands yesterday getting derailed cars back on the track. The cars were derailed Wednesday night at a section of Pennsylvania track about four miles west of Circleville. Gandy Dancers got the line back into operation yesterday. (Staff Photo)

Workers Get Train Cars Back on Track

The huge task of getting 12 derailed Pennsylvania Railroad freight cars, an engine and a caboose back on the tracks about four miles west of Circleville was completed here yesterday afternoon.

The westbound freight went off the tracks at 6:45 p. m. Wednesday. The engine, caboose and 12 cars slipped from the tracks but none overturned.

Pennsylvania Railroad officials here today said none of the train's five crewmen were injured. The derailment was about one mile west of Route 104.

According to railroad spokesmen, exact cause of the derailment has not been determined. They said the matter is under investigation.

INFORMATION concerning the accident was not learned here until about 1 p. m. yesterday.

Lewis Shauk, local Pennsylvania agent, said nine of the freight cars were loaded and three empty. He said none of the cars was damaged.

Section crews from Columbus, Lancaster, Zanesville and other areas were called here for the difficult job of getting the cars on track again. Shauk said most of the damage was confined to ties which were torn up.

The hardy Gandy Dancers worked all Wednesday night and most of yesterday in getting the situation under control.

The work was completed yesterday evening. A scheduled train crossed the area last night without incident.

Kennedy . . .

will do its best to win freedom for two U.S. Air Force fliers held by the Soviet Union since their plane was downed north of the Soviet Union last year.

Rusk arrived in Palm Beach a few hours after Kennedy had made public summaries of five study committee reports dealing with the international situation. All the groups were appointed by the president-elect.

One of the reports recommended that Kennedy "resist, insofar as possible . . . demands for early statements on the subject of arms control" and disarmament. The committee said the matter should be thoroughly debated within the administration and a clear policy worked out before any public stand is taken.

That committee also called for creation of a semi-autonomous agency, apparently within the State Department, for handling of disarmament policy and problems. It recommended that the head of such an agency work as an equal to the secretaries of state and defense.

Kennedy last week picked John J. McCloy, former high commissioner to Germany, to be chief of the U.S. Disarmament Administration, now a State Department unit.

On arrival in Palm Beach, Rusk said the question of a separate disarmament agency "is still very much in the study stage."

The other study committee reports dealt with:

AFRICA—The report said that at present there is no integrated policy regarding the newly independent nations of that continent. The summary said the committee has suggested detailed programs, but they were not made public.

FOREIGN ECONOMIC POLICY—Undisclosed suggestions were advanced for "strengthening United States leadership in the task of increasing international trade and developing (vigorous) economic abroad."

U.S. INFORMATION AGENCY—The report recommends that the new chief of the agency, which has the job of winning friends abroad for America, be designated as principal adviser to the president and the secretary of state on international information and cultural matters. The committee also urged that the director be made a member of the National Security Council, which is headed by the president.

Among those being considered by Kennedy for the information post is Jonathan Daniels, editor of the Raleigh (N.C.) News and Observer.

STATE DEPARTMENT—This report suggested an expanded role for U.S. ambassadors to reflect "more fully the fact that (they are) an extension of presidential authority abroad."

Primary Election Petitions Due Before February 1

The deadline for filing nominating petitions declaring candidacy for the 1961 May Primary Election is 4 p. m. February 1.

To date two petitions have been filed with the local elections board. Richard Penn, local attorney, and George Curtin, Circleville Ice Plant, have both filed petitions for the office of Circleville Mayor.

City offices up for election this year are: mayor, solicitor, treasurer, president of city council, councilmen in each ward and councilman at large.

Two trustees from each township and board of education members are also on the ballot for the 1961 November Election.

Petitions may be obtained at the County Board of Elections Office in the basement of the courthouse.

Uruguay Boots

can countries adopt his revolutionary tactics. In Havana, a big workers' rally called for tonight by Fidel Castro is generally believed to be a move to whip dissident labor factions into line.

Observers saw the latest big parade as an attempt to counter the effect of the open demonstration of anticommunism last month by electrical workers, who marched on the presidential palace shouting "Cuba si! Russia no!"

That resulted in a nationwide purge of their union, including the anti-Communist leadership. The labor confederation hierarchy has been successful so far in putting down the dissension.

It was generally assumed that Castro would address the rally tonight.

He is expected to announce that the "invasion" from the United States had been scared off by the extensive display of Czech and Soviet arms which has made much of the island an armed camp for several weeks.

Roman Catholic Church sources said that the heads of all parochial schools have been summoned to an urgent meeting. The informants said the conference may draft a protest against the occupation of Belen College by Castro's militia last week.

Classes at Belen, a grammar and high school operated by the Jesuits, were suspended when troops moved in — as they have into numerous other public buildings—on the pretext of invasion defense.

Bob Kennedy Given Nod for Cabinet Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved without objection the selection of Robert F. Kennedy to be attorney general in the Cabinet of his brother, President-elect John F. Kennedy.

But the approval did not come until after Republican Senate Leader Everett Dirksen inserted a GOP needle.

"I think the country has always felt that the attorney general should be a legal scholar and learned in the law, the Illinois senator said at a Judiciary Committee hearing on the appointment."

Democratic members of the committee quickly sprang to the defense of Kennedy, 35-year-old brother and campaign manager of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Sens. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., and John A. Carroll, D-Colo., said they had been struck by a strong parallel between the experience of Kennedy and William P. Rogers, attorney general in the outgoing Eisenhower administration.

Both Robert Kennedy and Rogers are former counsels of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

The hearing on Kennedys selection to be a member of the new Cabinet got off to a crisp, tense start in a jam-packed hearing room.

The prospect was for some Republican needling—but no serious challenge—to Kennedy as the man to lead the governments far-flung law enforcement activities.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .40 at 227.10 with industrials up 1.10, rails off .10 and utilities unchanged.

The churning upward motion—profit taking mingled with reinvestment—resumed a performance which has continued all this week.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.29 at 630.79. Corporate bonds rose slightly. U.S. government bonds eased. Trading was quiet.

Local Lumber Firm Files Lawsuit In County Court

A lawsuit has been filed in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court against David Block and Moses Block by The Circleville Lumber Co.

Plaintiffs in the action, Circleville Lumber Co., stated that the sum of $4,507.64 plus interest from July 2, 1960 is due and unpaid from David Block and Moses Block.

The amount due is from material furnished for construction, alteration, erection and improvement of a garage owned by the defendants, located on old Route 23, namely the Circleville Motor building.

Lumumba Is Reported Freed In Congo Army Troop Mutiny

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Congolese soldiers were reported to have mutinied today at the camp where ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba is imprisoned — and wild rumors swept the capital that Lumumba is free.

The soldiers reportedly locked up their officers at Camp Hardy after a riot over pay.

Lumumba was locked up in Camp Hardy Dec. 2. He was recaptured during an abortive attempt to reach his loyal stronghold at Stanleyville.

While the pro-Communist ex-premier has been brooding in jail his followers have taken control of Oriental and Kivu provinces and thrust into North Katanga. The Lumumba rebels now control over a third of the Congo and have strong support in other areas.

Lumumba took over as the Congo's first premier June 30 when the Belgians granted the colony independence. In his inaugural speech he accused the Belgians of inflicting sufferings on the Congolese people for 80 years.

Within a few days, the Congolese army mutinied against continued command by Belgian officers. Lumumba's opponents charge he incited the army to rise. The mutiny created panic among the Belgians remaining in the Congo and they quit the country in droves.

The Congo then appealed to the United Nations for help. Lumumba demanded withdrawal of Belgian troops. On July 20 Lumumba said he was ready to ask for Soviet help in stabilizing the country. Two days later he left for the United States and Canada in search of aid. He discovered that the West planned to channel all its Congolese aid through the United Nations.

The Russians began sending technicians as troops of the newly established U.N. force poured in. The Russians channeled their help directly to Lumumba's government in Leopoldville.

On Sept. 5 President Kasavubu dismissed Lumumba. He refused to quit but took refuge in the villa and stayed there with U.N. troops guarding him. Late in November he slipped out of the residence and headed for Stanleyville, where his supporters held control. He was arrested by strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu's troops in the interior and returned to Leopoldville Dec. 2 to stand trial for inciting the army to revolt.

Tennessean Held In Dayton Slaying

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A Knoxville, Tenn., man is slated for more questioning by detectives today in the slaying of an Illinois engineer in a Dayton hotel.

Detective Sgt. C. M. Teeter said Michael Hugh Compton, 21, already has orally admitted the bludgeoning slaying of Harvey "Whetstone, 31, of Lombard, Ill., at the Gibbons Hotel last Friday night.

Teeter said Compton gave as a motive the robbery of $32 from Whetstone, consulting engineer for the Alexander Proudfoot Co. of Chicago.

Teeter and detective Jack Reay brought Compton back to Dayton from Knoxville Thursday. They traveled in a city car which Compton and two other men allegedly stole from the municipal building parking lot here after the slaying.

Memorial to Gen. MacArthur

There is no living military figure whose active career spanned so many years or who participated in so many momentous campaigns as Douglas MacArthur.

In important roles in two world conflicts and the Korean War, as chief of staff and as superintendent of West Point, the U. S. Army's most decorated general has amassed an invaluable store of memory and written accounts of the important actions and decisions to which he contributed so magnificently.

It is welcome news that the wealth of documents and personal mementos of the General of the Armies is to be deposited in a place where future generations may continue the appraisal of American military history of the 50 years ended with Korea long after all principals have departed.

The invitation by the city of Norfolk to create a MacArthur memorial out of an old courthouse of classical Greek architecture has been accepted by the general and his aide has begun the tedious task of collecting and cataloging the material to be placed on view there.

Undoubtedly there are many other cities, including some with stronger ties to the Army, which would have welcomed the honor of housing MacArthur's memorabilia, but Norfolk is an appropriate selection. In addition to MacArthur's family ties (his mother was born there), Norfolk is one of the leading military citadels of the free world. It is the location of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Western Hemisphere command headquarters and of the largest naval base in the world.

As commander of Allied forces in the Pacific Theater during World War II, General MacArthur represented no single service. His administration of the unified command concept was closer to the creation of a single military force than any achieved before or since. The coordination of land, sea and air forces under his command was a milestone in military history. There is nothing incongruous, therefore, in locating the MacArthur memorial in an old naval town.

Douglas MacArthur is a soldier, but of a type far removed from interservice rivalries. His service was to his country, not to one segment of the military. This will be one of the realizations to strike everyone who reads through his correspondence and records.

long experience with the foibles of human beings, particularly those in public life, cause me to say that they are no worse than their predecessors and some are better. I recognize no great genius as yet, but I do not see much political payoff in the appointments thus far. Besides, there is always political pay-off to a degree.

I am asked why I do not object to Douglas Dillon, a Republican serving in the Kennedy Administration. It is forgotten that Colonel Frank Knox, Republican candidate for Vice President, and Henry L. Stimson, Herbert Hoover's Secretary of State, accepted Cabinet positions in Franklin D. Roosevelt's Administration. Douglas Dillon is an extraordinarily competent public official and his services can prove to be very valuable to the country. Whether he is a Republican or a Democrat seems to me immaterial, if he used his position to strengthen the dollar.

What is this fierce dislike for John Kennedy? He has been elected. He is entitled by custom and gentility to at least 100 days of freedom to get started. He has not yet committed an overt act of any kind, except to nominate some deservng Democrats and Republicans for certain positions which the Senate can, constitutionally, if it chooses, reject. Let us have a look at some of the names: admitted John Foster Dulles was a great man, a giant among Secretaries of State, but can the same be said for Christian Herter? Do those who complain about the appointment of Dean Rusk expect Kennedy to continue Herter in office? Would they have preferred Dean Acheson?

After all, it is usual in the United States for Democrats to appoint Democrats and Republicans to appoint Republicans.

I receive mail objecting to Robert Kennedy as Attorney General not because he is his brother's brother or because he is too young but because he has not been a trial lawyer. Since when does the Attorney General of the United States have to be a trial lawyer? Apparently, when the Attorney General is envisaged, what is expected is a mouthpiece, perhaps Perry Mason in person? This is an administrative position, having to do with many phases of the law, with the management of our Federal courts and prisons and of the FBI and pursuing by investigation mal-factors of various kinds. I do not know whether Robert Kennedy could be a competent accident lawyer or whether he could defend a criminal, but that he is a careful and precise investigator and that he understands management is evident in his career.

So he is also the brother of his brother as John Eisenhower is the son of his father, as all the Roosevelts had their opportunities in

Small Portion
McALESTER, Okla. (AP) — W. M. Woody, a guard at the state prison, commented on the fine taste of cookies made by penitentiary cooks. His wife asked for the recipe. He told her it was 600 pounds of flour, four cases of eggs, three cans of lard, 20 gallons of milk and so on. Later his wife surprised him by presenting him some of the cookies. She explained she figured out the recipe by dividing it by 640.

A HOLLYWOOD BIT PLAYER who fancied himself as a Lothario was boasting about his conquest on location in the San Joaquin Valley. “My first night there,” he announced, “I had dates with Sally, Irene and Fido.” “Fido!” echoed a friend. “That sounds like a dog to me.” The bit player was overcome with a rare burst of honesty. “If you think Fido was a dog,” he confessed, “You should have seen Sally and Irene!”

Ohio Postmasters Nominated By Ike, but Few To Get Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has sent to the Senate some postmaster nominations for Ohio.

Few, if any of the nominations will be approved by the Democrat-controlled senate, which is expected to delay action until the new administration takes office, and new appointees are recommended.

President Eisenhower, himself, withdrew at the start of his first term a list of nominations submitted late in the administration of President Truman.

Eisenhower's list:
Harold T. Deselms, Freeport; Thomas S. McCrea, Fresno; Joseph J. Smerke, Gates Mills; Ernest W. Jones, Glouster; Virginia G. Bortel, Grand Rapids; Arthur K. Siefer, Higginsport.

Charles R. Cramer, Iberia; Donovan J. Huntsberger, Kidron; V. Kathryn Whisler, Laurelville; Richard J. Neuhardt, Lewisville; B. Joanne Seifert, Litchfield; Harold H. Haggard, Urban.

Clair R. Guthrie, Waynesfield; Robert G. Stephenson, Wellston; Paul L. Rood, Westerville; Marvin D. Wolford, Rawson; Neva M. Beatty, Sedalia; James W. Speakman, Paris.

Ralph E. Hecker, Pataskala; Jennie V. Barge, Yorkshire; Robert D. Bates, Ashtabula; Charles R. Scott, Lodi; Henry J. Climer, Loudonderry; Paul E. Hess, Ludlow Falls.

Roger A. Barker, Lynchburg; Glen R. Stimmel, Malvern; Ruth C. Menker, Maria Stein; Alonzo D. McGlumphy, Martins Ferry; Harry E. Munson, Mesopotamia; Frederick B. Gatch, Milford.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Kennedy is going through Adlai Stevenson's law firm like a vacuum cleaner.

He has already picked three members of the firm—including Stevenson—for top jobs in his administration, is expected to name another shortly, and gave a key post to a former Stevenson law-associate.

All were long-time friends of Stevenson and his backers for the Democratic presidential nomination. But when Kennedy got it this year, they worked for him. And all know him personally, too.

It could be assumed Kennedy was paying off a political debt to them and or Stevenson for the help they gave him this year or was acknowledging his debt to the liberal view they represent and represented in the campaign.

But this writer contacted a number of people who know all the men given these choice assignments and they prefer to think Kennedy did his picking because these friends of Stevenson are brainy, distinguished men.

These are the three members of the firm already tapped: Stevenson, as ambassador to the United Nations; Newton W. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission; and W. Willard Wirtz, undersecretary of labor.

Kennedy shortly is expected to name another member of the Stevenson Chicago law office — William Blair—as an ambassador. Blair, rich in his own right and able to pay an ambassador's bills, is a long-time Kennedy family friend.

Kennedy chose George W. Ball, associated with Stevenson in a Chicago law firm back in the early 1940s, as undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

Minow 34, served as law clerk for the then Chief Justice Fred Vinson and was administrative assistant to Stevenson when the latter was governor of Illinois more than eight years ago.

Wirtz, 46, has a long experience in the labor field and has known the man who will be his new boss, Arthur Goldberg, secretary of labor, a long time. It's Goldberg who may have done the actual picking of Wirtz.

Besides being a professor of law at Northwestern University, Wirtz is also an arbitrator in labor disputes. During the war he served on various government bodies. Like many others called to Washington, Wirtz went to Harvard—the law school.

Ball at 51 has an international law practice, has crossed the Atlantic perhaps more times than he can remember, and is member of a law firm which has offices in Washington, New York, Paris and Brussels.

Back in the New Deal days of President Roosevelt, Ball worked in the Agriculture and Treasury departments and, during the war, Snow, formed by cooling steam from an atomic energy plant, fell on Oak Ridge, Tenn. Can't list this as a new scientific boon — we've plenty of the old — fashioned nature-produced kind of icy flakes already.

Fortunately, the atomic snow was not radio — active. However, it wasn't self-shoveling either!

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef regains its position as king of the meat counters this week.
It's the most widely advertised item among weekend specials of supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Featured cuts included round and rump roasts, round steaks, rib ends, and veal chops and roasts.

Prices were up from last week
in some cases.

Beef supplies in the first quarter of this year are expected to be seven per cent above a year ago but most of the increase will be from lower grade cattle. Fewer of the grain-fed steers which provide the choicest steaks are expected to reach market. As a result, prices of better grades are advancing.

Pork also is high on the weekend bargain list. The offerings include loin, spare ribs, hams and bacon. Current retail prices are a little higher than a year ago.

Frying and roasting chickens are featured in some sections of the country.

Egg prices slumped sharply, as much as 10 to 12 cents a dozen in some localities.

Vegetables continued to be in abundance and great variety.

Best buys included beets, carrots, orange and yellow sweet potatoes, eastern potatoes, onions, parsnip, Florida celery, turnips, rutabagas, endive, escarole, collards, kale and mustard.

Protestants Catholics Plan Separate Prayer for Unity

NEW YORK (AP)—Protestants and Catholics throughout the world next week will kneel together—and pray separately.

They will be praying for unity—though with different ideas of the form it should take—in dual observances of a devotion as unique in origin as it is in practice, and one which goes far beyond any current endeavor of the popular ecumenical movement.

Unlike most current ecumenical efforts being carried out by learned church leaders on a lofty theological plane, this is an annual assault on religious differences by simple people on their knees.

Catholics call it the "Chair of Unity Octave," the World Council of Churches calls it the "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity."
It will be observed Jan. 18-25.

Can persons pray together from opposing positions?

The question itself, says Dr.
Keith Bridston, secretary of the World Council's Faith and Order
Commission, helps participants
"to sense the naked scandal of Christian disunity."

He feels the observance at least brings the churches together to face their differences, and "this is one of the most creative things it can accomplish."

There is no mistake, however, about the route the founder of the observance had in mind for his prayer movement.

His name was Lewis Thomas Watson, a deeply religious man and an eloquent speaker who graduated from the General Theological Seminary in New York in 1885 and assumed the name Father Paul James Francis.

From his earliest days in the ministry he dreamed of establishing an order of Anglican friars dedicated to the apostolate of unity.

This he did in 1898, in the monastic quiet of Graymoor, near Garrison, N.Y., across the Hudson River from West Point.

Father Paul called his new religious order the Society of the Atonement. He explained he chose the word not in its usual sense of expiation, but because of its literal, though archaic, connotation of atonement, reunion. He and his 16 followers, including a small group of Anglican nuns, by this time were convinced they should be Roman Catholics.

For 11 years, however, they refused to desert their faith individually. Instead they worked toward corporate reunion with Rome of the entire Anglican Church. In their zeal, they considered such a goal attainable.

Finally in 1909—a year after his friars conducted their first octave of prayer for unity—Father Paul turned for advice to his Anglican superior, the Rt. Rev. Frederick
J. Kinsman, bishop of Delaware.
"Either give up belief in a divinely established papacy and in Roman dogmas," advised the bishop, "or else give up Anglican orders—and be a good Roman Catholic. I have no hesitation in saying that if I were in your position I should choose the latter alternative."

Before the year was out the Society of the Atonement became the first non-Catholic religious community ever received as a group into the church of Rome.

Father Paul was ordained a Catholic priest eight months later, and in the years that followed he watched his society grow into a sizeable religious order with more than a dozen houses in North America.

Its goal of Christian unity never has changed, and has remained focused on the eight days beginning with the Catholic feast of the Chair of St. Peter in Rome, Jan. 18, and ending on the feast of the conversion of St. Paul, Jan.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Endless Discussion!

DEAR ABBY: We have been having an argument. Just how much of a person's success and failure is due to heredity and how much is due to environment?

STUDENTS
DEAR STUDENTS: No one really knows—but environment is the easier of the two to improve.

DEAR ABBY: I am 23, divorced and have two children. My boy friend is 30, married and has two children also. He was my boss at one time and we fell deeply in love. A month ago I had a child by him. No one knows anything about this. The baby is in a home right now waiting for me to sign the adoption papers or take him home.

My boy friend can't get a divorce without sacrificing his family, business and religion. He said if I kept the baby he would always provide for him. Should I keep the baby and raise him with my two? Or should I give him up? Please don't ask me to give up my boy friend. I love him so much I could never do it, so there's no use kidding myself.

BIG DECISION

DEAR BIG DECISION: The answer is not in my head—it's in your heart. You show no concern for the baby's welfare but mention only yourself, your "boy friend" and your determination to cling to an illicit love affair. Keep the baby only if you decide to give up your boy friend. Any other decision would complicate the lives of many innocent people.

DEAR ABBY: I am desperate. I am only 20 but weigh 160 pounds. When I go to buy a dress, it must be a size 18 with a full skirt. My measurements are 38-28-46, so you can see where my problem is. How can I reduce my problem?

HIPPY
DEAR HIPPY: First, see a doctor about a diet. Rolling on the floor 15 minutes a day is dandy for reducing your "problem." Walking is good, too—but not to the refrigerator.

Elopement Given Boost In Florida

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A teen-age couple's elopement, stuck at first in a northern snow-drift, was blossoming today in sunshine spread by kindly Florida police and forgiving parents.

Gary Benz of Avon, N.Y., and Caroline Bartz of nearby Scottsville are happily planning/Saturday nuptials here.

The 18-year-olds' situation is radically different than when blonde Caroline and lanky Gary arrived. They were arrested at the end of a 1,300-mile, 11-day trip on short rations after defying their folks and running off in her parents' car.

"New Year's Eve Gary picked me up and we went out," Caroline said. "Before we knew it, it was 2 a.m. I was scared to go home at that hour."

"The car slid on ice and plowed into a snowbank," said Caroline. "A snowplow dug us out in the morning."

"I'm not sure how we wound up here but we were out of gas and money. I had pawned everything, except her ring of course. We slept in the car Monday night and the police found us Tuesday," Gary said.

Officers telephoned their parents.

Caroline heard her father give his consent to their marriage. The Bartzes also promised them a trailer on the family farm to live in and a farm job for Gary.

Kathleen McCabe, detective bureau secretary, contributed $10 for blood test fees and the marriage license. Police Lt. John Van Tronk sent Gary and Caroline off in his prowl car to get the license and tests.

The wedding is set for Saturday when their parents are expected to arrive.

New Chief's Plans, Problems

Kennedy Expected To Find Needed Help for Farmers

Editor's Note — President-elect John F. Kennedy has promised vigorous action to increase the farmer's income. How will he go about fulfilling this pledge and others to aid urban centers? Here's a review of the broad shape of Kennedy's probable attack on problems of the farm and city, last in a series of five on policies of the new administration.

By OVID MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has promised to help farmers attain a higher level of prosperity and to assist city dwellers in coping with mushrooming municipal problems.

But the new team will get to work quicker on problems of farmers than those of their city cousins.

Orville L. Freeman, former governor of Minnesota, will take over the Department of Agriculture, with its vast system of field offices and farmer committees on Jan. 20.

One of his first steps is expected to be assurance to farmers that they can look for better days before the year is out.

Insofar as the cities are concerned, it may take more time to develop a coordinated assistance program to solve complex problems of slum clearance, mass transportation, urban planning, sewage disposal, juvenile delinquency and education. The Democratic platform promised city folk a seat on the president's Cabinet and Kennedy has endorsed a special report by urban experts call

Building Erected Under 'Big Top'

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — There's a one-story office building going up under the "big top" in downtown Akron.

It all started when the building contractor, Thomas J. Dillon, was given a March 15 deadline to put up the $112,000 building. Aware of the construction difficulties during winter, he went hunting for a circus tent and found one in upstate New York. It was 100 X 140 feet.

He hired Frank Richard of Berea, a retired canvas expert who was an old circus hand, to put up the "big top."

Now the protected workers can go about constructing the building for the real estate firm, Burkhardt Consolidated Co.

ing for creation of a Cabinet-level department for urban affairs. However, no time schedule was indicated. The post would require approval by Congress.

The attack on the farm problem is expected to have two phases. One would greatly broaden measures to increase consumption of agriculture's super-abundant production both at home and abroad.

The other would tighten government controls on farm production—in cases approved by farmers—to help prevent excessive output.

Nevertheless, Kennedy has said that abundant farm production—now represented by huge surplus stocks—would be regarded as a blessing and not as a curse.

The administration is expected to move cautiously in development of its programs. One reason is that much of the Midwestern farm belt voted for Nixon rather than for Kennedy.

Details of the farm program will be developed after a big farm conference of leaders of farmers' own organizations in Washington Jan. 26. This meeting—arranged by Kennedy and Freeman at New York last week—is designed to help the new administration draft policies that would be widely accepted by producers. Some new farm legislation doubtless will be required.

While the details may be lacking, the Kennedy farm goal has been spelled out repeatedly. It is action by the government to enable the family farm to earn incomes on a par with those of other economic groups. Presently, farm income averages considerably below that of nonfarmers. It also is down about a fourth from what it was eight years ago.

To be decided are methods and devices to raise the income level. Both Kennedy and his party's platform proposed use of rigid production controls, higher price supports, production payments to producers and marketing orders and agreements.

These devices have run into sharp opposition from some farm organizations, including the influential American Farm Bureau Federation. The Federation, like the outgoing Eisenhower administration, wants to reduce government's role in agriculture.

The Kennedy farm program could result in somewhat higher food prices for consumers and possibly higher taxes for taxpayers. However, Kennedy has said that this need not be the case. Freeman himself has said the farm program would exploit neither consumer nor taxpayer.

The Kennedy proposals for urban areas contemplates a four-point 10-year improvement program, as follows: (1) federal aid in elimination of slums; (2) federal aid for metropolitan area planning and community facilities development; (3) federal aid for comprehensive metropolitan transportation programs, including bus and rail mass transit, commuter railroads as well as highways and civil airports; and (4) expansion of park systems to meet recreational needs of the growing urban population.

U.S. Treasury In Need of More Revenue

Ike's Budget Report Expected To Reflect Lag in Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—While President Eisenhower is readying his final federal budget which he says will be balanced, his Treasury Department is reporting it needs more cash—now.

The reasons is that tax collections continue to disappoint. And the reason they do is chiefly that business activity continues to lag behind the Treasury's earlier estimates, even its sharply lower guess last October. The tie between the Treasury's health and that of business is a close one.

And while President-elect John F. Kennedy is preparing his inaugural address which may show what he expects of business activity, his choice for Treasury secretary, Douglas Dillon, is telling senators that slow tax collections may cause a deficit in the fiscal year starting July 1, no matter what the budget offered next Monday may predict.

The Treasury's present plight isn't serious. It is seeking $100 million in new money now — a mere dab in a $81-billion budget and a $90-billion federal debt—although it may seek still more cash in the next few weeks.

And the Treasury expects any cash stringency to disappear after February when collections from income tax returns normally pick up.

The point of the Treasury's current entry into the money market for more cash after it had presumably got itself well fixed for some time ahead is that this puts another dollar and cents emphasis on the extent of the business slowdown — the Treasury still doesn't like to call it a recession.

Last January the Treasury was expected to have a $4-billion surplus when it closes its fiscal books this coming June 30. It was depending on bigger business profits it could tax. By summer it was obvious that business profits weren't going to be that good, and the Treasury revised its surplus estimate to $1.1-billion. Today many outside the Treasury doubt if there'll be that much of a surplus, if any.

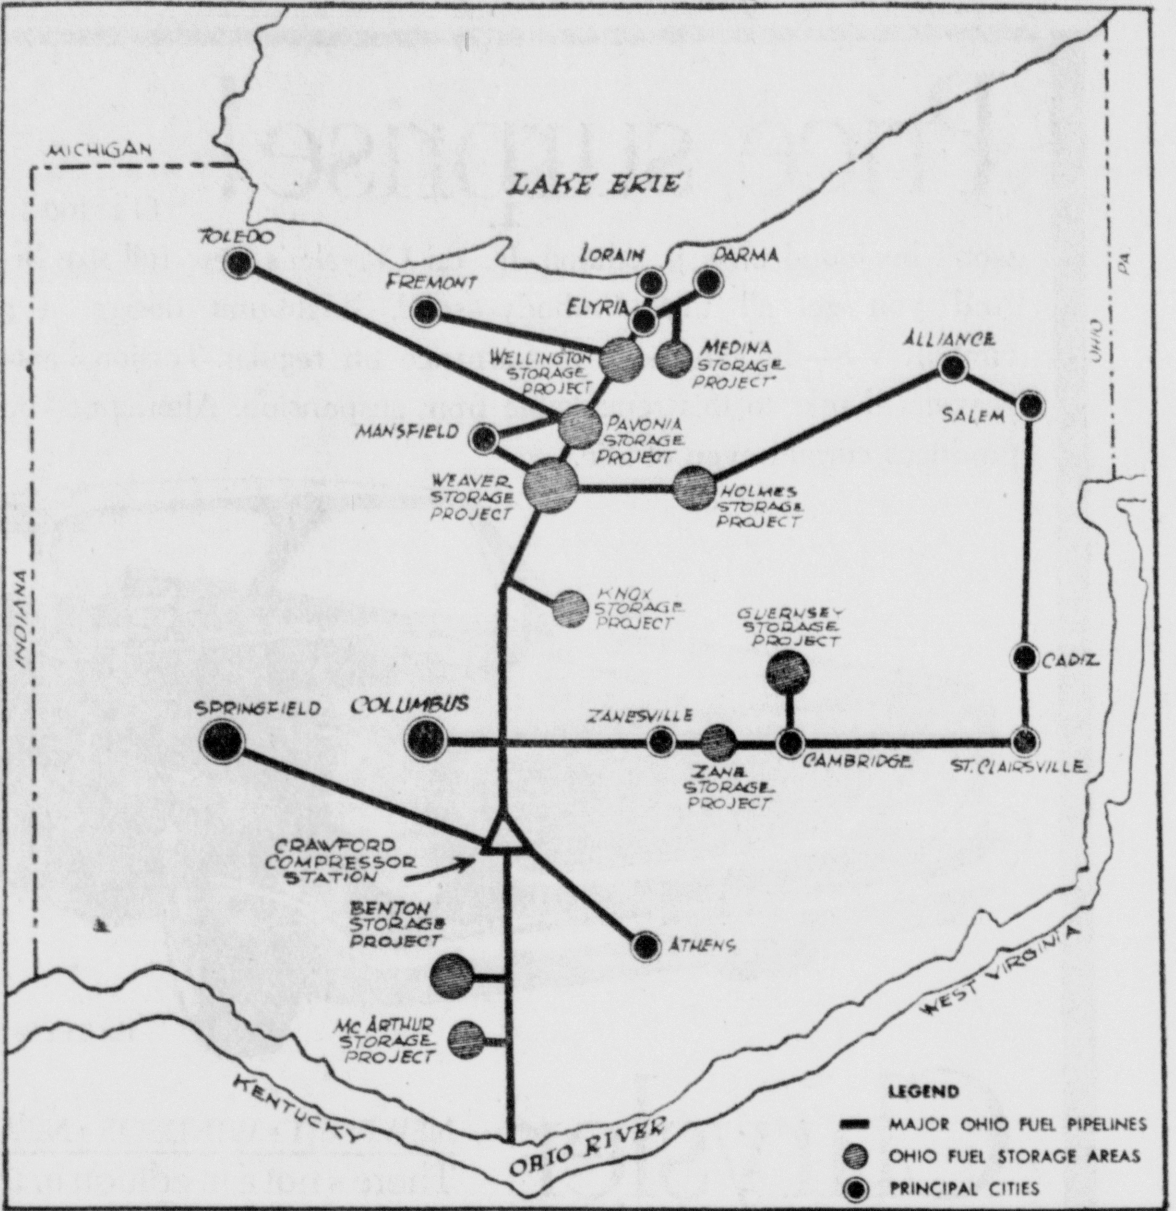

Actually business profits in 1960 are turning out to total just about what they did in 1959. The trouble is that the current federal budget was counting on them to climb well above 1959 and furnish enough in taxes to meet the higher spending in the current fiscal year and leave some over to apply on the federal debt.

They didn't, the surplus prospect is melting away, and the Treasury is seeking cash when it was thought last October it would be sitting pretty well into spring.

President Eisenhower's budget message Monday is expected to show how much of a surplus, if any, he expects the Treasury to have June 30. And after the new secretary of the Treasury gets settled into office he may revise this estimate.

But the point for businessmen is that when corporate profit margins are pinched as they have been this year—sometimes by declining sales and more often by rising operating costs—it isn't just the stockholder who suffers. The U.S. Treasury gets squeezed right along with him.

Huge Underground Storage Wells Hold Ohio Gas Supply

GAS STORAGE AREAS — The Ohio Fuel Gas Company has 10 huge underground storage areas in which gas is stored during summer for use during winter to heat Ohio homes. The storage areas (shaded circles on map) are located strategically throughout Ohio Fuel operating territory. At the start of the current heating season, Ohio Fuel had packed the underground storage areas with 206 billion cubic feet of gas.

Underground rock reservoirs, in which natural gas is stored safely and economically by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., save Ohio Fuel customers an average of about $54 during the winter heating season, D. R. Cotterman, local manager for Ohio Fuel, said today.

The reservoirs are actually natural formations of porous, gas-holding rock, located thousands of feet down in the earth. Cotterman said the underground storage of gas makes it possible for Ohio Fuel to provide the tremendous volumes of natural gas needed to meet the winter heating need of more than 660,000 Ohio homes.

During summer, Cotterman said natural gas delivered to Ohio from the Southwest is stored in the underground storage areas. In winter it is withdrawn as needed to help heat homes.

Ohio Fuel has 10 of these huge storage reservoirs for stockpiling large quantities of natural gas close to consumers. They are located strategically throughout the state. At the start of the current heating season they were packed with 206 billion cubic feet of natural gas.

"Without underground storage, it would be impossible for Ohio Fuel to furnish all the gas needed for winter to our customers — at such reasonable rates," Cotterman said.

COTTERMAN said underground storage was developed by Ohio Fuel as an economical means of meeting the sharply increased needs for gas during cold weather. Nine out of every 10 Ohio Fuel customers heat their homes with gas. As a result, Cotterman said, as much as eight times more gas is needed on a cold winter day as on a mid-summer day.

Since first undertaking the program in 1936, Ohio Fuel has invested more than $61,000,000 to develop underground storage. Only if additional new transcontinental pipelines were built from the Southwest producing areas — at a substantially greater cost than the underground storage program — could the gas company otherwise supply the tremendous, modern winter heating needs of its customers.

Because of underground storage, it is estimated that Ohio Fuel customers save about 27½ cents on every thousand cubic feet of gas they use. The customer who heats his home with gas uses an average of about 24,500 cubic feet a month during the winter heating season. He thus saves an average of about $6.74 a month. The heating season extends from October through May.

To further emphasize the importance of underground storage, Cotterman said as much as 55 percent of the gas used by Ohio Fuel customers on a cold winter day comes directly from the storage fields.

Cotterman explained that the underground gas - holding reservoirs now used by Ohio Fuel for storing gas brought to Ohio from the Southwest once held native gas. They were converted to storage use after they were depleted of their original supplies.

Each of the storage projects contains a number of wells which have been re-built for storage. As the needs for gas increase, Ohio Fuel drills additional wells into the reservoirs so gas can be stored and withdrawn from the "vaults" in larger quantities, daily. During 1960, Ohio Fuel drilled 15 new storage wells.

The storage areas, with number of wells and the amount of gas stored in each, are: Benton (Hocking County), 351 wells, 35.9 billion cubic feet; Weaver (Richland and Ashland counties), 336 wells, 67.4 billion cubic feet; Pavonia (Richland and Ashland counties), 155 wells, 34.6 billion cubic feet;

Holmes (Holmes, Wayne, and Ashland counties), 178 wells, 22.6 billion cubic feet; Wellington (Lorain and Medina counties), 224 wells, 19.8 billion cubic feet; McArthur (Vinton County), 87 wells, 9.1 billion cubic feet; Medina (Medina County), 64 wells, 7.6 billion cubic feet;

Guernsey (Guernsey and Coshocot counties), 56 wells, 5.3 billion cubic feet; Knox (Knox County), 44 wells, 3.4 billion cubic feet, and Zane (Muskingum County), one well, 78 million cubic feet.

Mental Exams Ordered For Springfield Boys

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Psychiatric examinations have been ordered for two young brothers who admitted the fatal beating of a playmate last month. Juvenile Court Judge Harry G. Cram stipulated Thursday that the boys, 11 and 9, be taken either to the Children's Diagnostic Center in Columbus or to the Child Guidance Clinic in Dayton. The brothers told police they bludgeoned 7-year-old Thomas Williams last month. His body was found in a Springfield street.

No Great New Silhouette Shows Up in Spring Styles

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—Nobody expected a great new silhouette for spring 1961. And one hasn't materialized.

This means, with the end approaching for the New York couture group showings, you can chalk up the season as one of the more successful for fashion forecasting.

In lieu of lines, designers have shown the 200-plus visiting fashion writers attending the 36th National Press Week of tender regard for wearability and an adventurous awareness of fabrics.

Four fashion houses presented their couture concepts Wednesday and they boiled down to: costumes, costumes, costumes, costumes.

Roxane of Samuel Winston made a dramatic departure. Instead of the usual combination of solid jacket and skirt with print blouse and matching print jacket lining, she came up with print jackets—the print forming the outside, that is.

Davidow went right along with the costume trend. His coat and suit coordinates for spring sported blouses in colors dyed to match, with the emphasis on monochromes.

Jackets in the Davidow collection ranged from just below the waist to the hipbone. One longer style was straight, but mostly the short jackets were boxy or cardigan and the longer were fitted. Skirts were straight but easy.

Paul Parnes' collection designed by Beni Claire was the usual highly wearable group of clothes women have come to expect from this house. There was a great attention to detail, and a vast range of fabrics — from lightweight tweeds and wools, to sheer crepes, silk prints and embroidered or gandy.

Parnes used lace appliques as generously as the succeeding collection of Harvey Bern's. The bias cut was big with Bern, and so were bloused backs on bodices, draped skirts with floating panels and gathers to soften slim skirts.

Texas Crew Hands Bradley First Defeat

Houston's Bad Men Scalp Braves Second Time in Two Years

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas, sub, is big, bold, brash and — to Bradley's basketball Braves—just plain bad!

For the second time in two seasons, the University of Houston has derailed one of Bradley's unbeaten streaks. Thursday night, it was a 60-59 upset that snapped the Braves' nation-leading major college winning string at 18. Bradley had started the new one, which carried through the National Invitation Tournament championship and 12 games this season, after having a 15-game streak broken by the same big, bold, brash and bad Houston on Feb. 22 last year.

It was an Illinois boy—hailing from Wood River about 150 miles south of Bradley's Peoria campus—who applied the string-snapper in the intersectional game at Houston.

Jim Lemmon, a 6-2 senior, sank a free throw with 35 seconds left to close out the victory over the nation's No. 2 team and one of five major unbeaten clubs in the country. The two trips to Houston have cost the Braves a 35-game streak.

The Braves remain the Missouri Valley Conference leader and favorite since Houston (now 8-5) pulled out of the league this year, but other MVC clubs showed there are other pitfalls ahead.

Reawakening Cincinnati (10-3) survived a shower of debris from unhappy Wichita fans and crushed the Wheatshockers 80-57 for a 2-2 league record as soph Tom Thacker's 20 points led a balanced attack. Tulsa held Drake's high-scoring Gus Guydon without a point in the first half while handing the Bulldogs their second loss in 12 games, 81-69. St. Louis (10-4) was the only favorite to win—routing North Texas State (1-19) 60-40.

Virginia Tech (5-0) and West Virginia (5-1) remained a half-game apart in the Southern Conference. Tech, winning its seventh against two losses over-all, whipped VMI 78-63 as Chris Smith scored 26 points. Sophomore Rod Thorn fired 32 points in a 105-87 rout of George Washington that extended West Virginia's winning streak to eight and its over-all record to 10-2.

Dave King's tip-in with 20 seconds left gave Connecticut its third straight Yankee Conference victory, 79-77 over New Hampshire, and Utah's defending champions made it 2-0 in Skyline Conference tussling, 111-66 over New Mexico as Billy McGill scored 27 points.

All five Notre Dame starters hit double figures, led by John Tully's 16, in a 76-54 romp over St. Francis (Pa.), and 26 points by Tom Conard and 21 by Jerry Smith led Furman's 70-61 victory over Clemson.

The Warriors won their sixth game in their last eight starts with a 111-102 victory over the St. Louis Hawks Thursday night. But in the first game of the double-header at Philadelphia, the Celtics made it seven-out-of-eight with a 124-118 overtime conquest of the Syracuse Nats.

In the only other game, the Detroit Pistons returned to their old home at Fort Wayne, Ind., and downed the Cincinnati Royals 124-112.

County Junior High Tourney Opens Saturday with 3 Tilts

The Pickaway County Junior High basketball tournament will be off and running tomorrow with three games scheduled to open the annual event.

Opening contests are Jackson vs Pickaway at 2 p. m., Salt Creek vs Atlanta at 3:15 and Ashville vs Monroe at 7. All tourney games will be played at Jackson Twp. High School tomorrow, January 21, 23 and 28.

Two special events are lined up for the tournament. The annual John McPherson trophy will be awarded to the tourney's outstanding 8th grade player and the annual foul shooting contest will be conducted.

The McPherson trophy is awarded in memoriam to John McPherson who died two years ago after devoting many years as a coach in junior and senior high basketball.

The foul shooting championship is determined by the player who makes the most of 25 foul shots. Each team is allowed one contestant and he will take his shots at the half of his team's first tourney game.

This year's tournament is under the direction of Lawrence Fullen of Ashville.

Following tomorrow's opening, two games are scheduled January 21. Washington Twp. will meet the winner of the Jackson-Pickaway game at 7 p. m. and Darby the winner of the Salt Creek-Atlanta test at 8:15. Winners of these tests will play January 23, the first game at 6 p. m. and the second at 7.

The tournament finals are slated January 28. The game for consolation honors will be staged at 7 p. m. and the championship tilt at 8:30.

Salt Creek will be one of the favorites for the tourney title after winning the league crown with a 8-1 record. The young Warriors of Coach Loren Straight won 25 in a row over a two-year period before losing their final game of the season this year with Washington Twp.

Washington and Ashville both rank high. Each finished the season at 7-2. Walnut and Atlanta also are labeled as top contenders.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians announced today they are asking waivers on veteran pitcher Don Newcombe for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release.

Monti Paces Golf Tourney In San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Eric Monti of Los Angeles, who was seven strokes off the pace a year ago, led the field into the second round of the $20,000 San Diego golf tournament today.

The 41-year-old teaching professional had a brilliant first-round 66, five-under-par. But he was only one stroke ahead of his nearest rival as play was resumed over the par 35-67 Mission Valley County Club course.

In a three-way tie for second place at 67 were Gary Players of South Africa, who missed a $10,000 hole-in-one prize by 10 inches Thursday; Jerry Barber, 135-pound veteran from Los Angeles, and Marty Furgol, another old-timer who won the tournament in 1959.

Just two shots behind Monti were six threats—Bob Goalby, the Los Angeles Open winner last Monday; ex-National PGA champion Lionel Hebert; Bo Wininger, Don January, Frank Boynton and Darrel Hickock.

Best known name in the 69-bracket was Arnold Palmer, who rebounded from his sad 12-stroke blowup on one hole in the Los Angeles Open that sent him out of play after two rounds. Palmer shot a 34-35 to tie Billy Casper Jr., and eight others in the San Diego event.

Some of the other better known pros faced rougher going.

Mike Suchak, the 1960 San Diego winner, was tied at 72, with Art Wall Jr., and Dow Finsterwald and others.

Red-Hot Cincy Routs Wichita

51 Pct. Shooting Nets 80-57 Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The upset-minded Cincinnati Bearcats had a mind to do just that Thursday night.

And when you can connect on every other shot from the floor, for a blistering 51.6 per cent, it's not too hard to accomplish.

So the Bearcats found out as they routed Wichita 80-57 for their second Missouri Valley Conference victory in four starts.

The 'Cats had the Shockers screaming me-ow-w-eh by half-time when they led 42-21.

But the real screams came from the fans who started pelting the court with debris when Gene Wiley, Wichita's 6-10 star, was injured early in the second half and had to leave the game.

Two warnings by officials failed to stop the boisterousness. It was not until Wichita coach Ralph Miller announced that the game would be forfeited if order was not restored that the crowd quieted down.

There were three other loop tilts involving Ohio cage quintets.

Wooster edged Ohio Wesleyan 67-64 and Capital did likewise with Kenyon 62-58 in Ohio Conference frays. Case Tech, meanwhile, was presenting its coach, Phillip (Nip) Heim, with his 100th victory since coming to the school in 1948, in ripping past Thiel 85-63 in a Presidents' Conference game.

In nonleague action, Oberlin upped its record to 5-3 with an 82-53 shellacking of Allegheny (Pa.).

Wooster, down by seven points at halftime, rallied and tied the score 46-all with 12 minutes to play. Reggie Minton, who collected 25 points, then helped the Scots erase a see-saw fight for the lead and hand Ohio Wesleyan only its second conference defeat against eight wins.

Capital, deadlocked with Kenyon 32-all at intermission, had to rely on foul shooting to claim its fourth

3 Discards Said Best Rookie Bets for 1961 Cincy Redlegs

NEW YORK (AP)—Three discards—pitcher Ray Riplemeier, who couldn't make it with Milwaukee; pitcher Howard Nunn, who flopped with St. Louis; and second baseman Jimmy Baumer, who once received a $50,000 bonus from the Chicago White Sox, are the best rookie bets on the Cincinnati Reds.

Riplemeier, 27, enjoyed a fine season with Seattle of the Pacific Coast League last year, winning 16 while losing 13. The right-hander had a 2.71 earned run average.

Nunn, also a right-hander, was the ace of the Jersey City staff last year, winning 12 of 18 decisions and posting a gleaming 1.99 ERA.

Baumer, who got his fat bonus in 1949, finally came into his own last year with a .293 batting average at Salt Lake City.

Others with a good chance to make the grade are catcher Hal Bevan, who batted .305 in 131 games at Seattle, and third baseman Cliff Cook, a .310 hitter at Nashville, with 12 home runs and 63 RBI.

The Reds' freshman list includes five first-year men. The most promising appears to be Tommy Harper, a fleet-footed second baseman with a good batting eye. The 18-year-old hit only .254 at Topeka but stole 26 bases in 28 attempts and coaxed 76 bases on balls in 79 games.

Indian Pitcher Seeks Pay Talks

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Perry, ace of the Cleveland Indians' pitching staff last season, is having contract troubles.

He said at his home in North Carolina Thursday night that he would bring his contract—unsigned—when he comes to Cleveland to be honored as the Indians' "Man of the Year" at the Cleveland baseball writers' Ribs and Roast show Jan. 23.

He insisted, however, that he wouldn't become a holdout "or anything like that."

"I just want to sit down and talk it over with someone," said the lanky hurler. "Now that Frank Lane is gone, who do I see?"

Reynolds Rolls 257 In Kegler League

General Electric moved to within 1½ games of first place in Late Monday bowling this week at Circle D by downing Guernsey Dairy three games.

League leading Circle D tripped Moore's Store three games, dropping Moore's to third place.

Ed Reynolds rolled a solid 257 single to take honors for the evening. George Ramey had a 213, Don Valentine 210, Bob Moon 203 and Gordy Fraser 201.

Bowlers well over the 500 series mark were George Ramey 581, Bob Callihan 575, Ed Reynolds 572, Bill Eddy 562, Junior Fowler and Bob Moon 549, and Don Valentine 532.

Futile Raid

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—More than three years ago the C & I Drug Store got a safe from a bakery on a trial basis. But nobody knew the combination.

An expert wanted $50 to open the safe. So it sat in the drug store unopened.

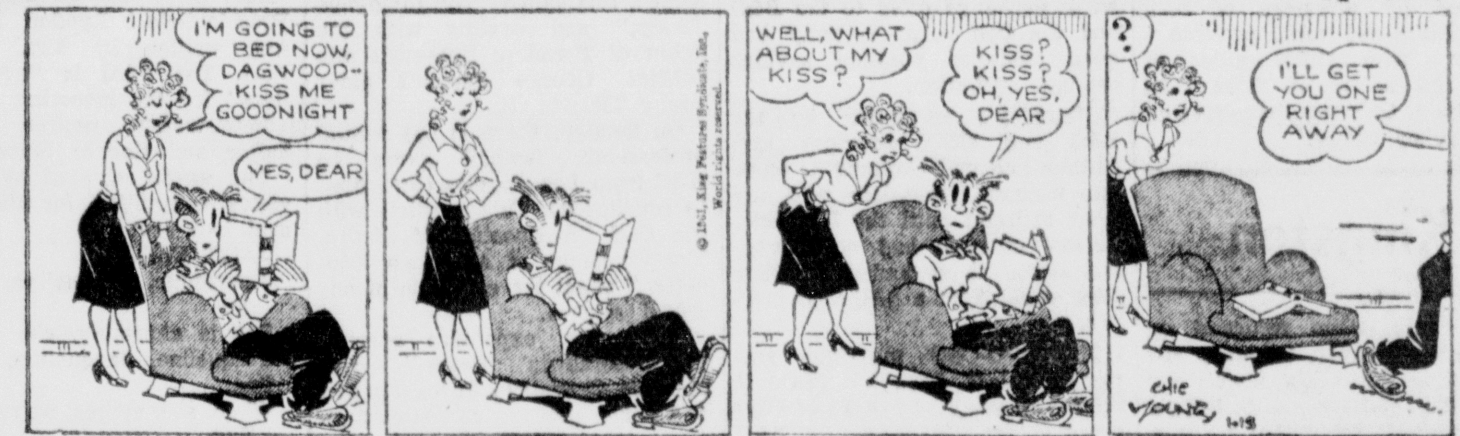

Until recently, that is, when a burglar pried it open and found nothing.

B&O-C&O Chiefs Approve Merger

BALTIMORE (AP) — Only approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission is needed to form the nation's second largest railroad network.

A merger of the Baltimore & Ohio and the Chesapeake & Ohio, endorsed by directors of both roads Thursday, would produce a company with 11,000 miles of track and assets of more than $2.3 billion. Only the Pennsylvania is larger or richer.

Kingston

Miss Betsy Boggs returned on Saturday to Denver, Colorado after spending the holidays with her family, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Boggs, John and Ned. Betsy is in her senior year at Loretto Heights College of nursing.

On Thursday afternoon, the Boggs family went to Columbus and called on their cousin, Mr. Frank Radcliff, who at one time lived in Kingston.

Mrs. James Leist, of Dayton, visited Tuesday and Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Yapple, then went to Chillicothe to spend a few days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright.

Mr. James Leist is in Germany, at present, on business for the Wright-Patterson Air Field.

Miss Mary Harpster was a business visitor in Circleville on Thursday.

Mr. Dean Godden, of Columbus, is moving this week to the property formerly owned by Sol D. Riegel on the corner of Pickaway and Oak Streets. It is now the property of Mr. H. S. Boggs and has just been redecorated.

Mrs. Carl Smith is substituting in the 6th grade at Logan Elm School — replacing Mrs. Mildred Maxwell while she recovers from recent eye surgery.

Mrs. Carson Dresbach has returned to her home here after spending a week in Mt. Carmel Hospital as a medical patient.

Mrs. Golden Minser spent ten days of the holiday vacationing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flender in Cincinnati. She returned to her home on Monday.

Mrs. Effie Hildebrand is recovering from recent surgery performed at Doctor's Hospital, at the home of her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones.

Mrs. Ralph McCormick has sold her Beauty Shop on S. Main St. to Mrs. Sara Bee Gay.

Mrs. F. B. Mowery and son, Lloyd, spent part of the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Brown Pettit (Ann Mowery), and son Mike.

$15½ Million VA Clinic To Replace Crile Unit

CLEVELAND (AP) — Plans for a $15.5 million Veterans Administration hospital to be built in the Wade Park area were released Thursday at a meeting of VA architects and engineers. It will replace the Crile VA facility in Parma Heights.

The six-story, 800-bed hospital is expected to be completed in 30 months after the beginning of construction, which is scheduled for July. It will be only three-quarters of a mile from the Western Reserve University Medical School. It is VA policy to build new hospitals near medical schools.

B&O's endorsement of C&O's stock exchange offer had been in doubt until Thursday. The joint announcement of hopes for a "prompt unification" leaves the New York Central out in the cold.

The Central also had made a stock exchange offer to the B&O and the two roads recently had been studying possible savings through affiliation.

Thursday's resolution by the B&O and C&O directors said neither line will continue or enter into merger discussions with any other railroad until the ICC acts. Central officials had no immediate comment but had said earlier they would fight a B&O-C&O merger.

The B&O-C&O marriage was proposed last June by C&O. It offered to swap one share of C&O common for 1¼ shares of B&O common and one share of C&O common for one share of B&O preferred.

As of Dec. 22, C&O president Walter J. Tuohy said 55 per cent of the outstanding shares of B&O stock had been offered for exchange. B&O president Howard Simpson Thursday urged all other shareholders to agree to the swap.

C&O's dividend rate is $4 a year on each share of common stock. The B&O paid $1.50 in 1960 but has cut the rate for this year to 60 cents.

Both lines derive more than 95 per cent of their revenue from freight, operating between the Atlantic Ocean and the Midwest.

The C&O is the country's largest hauler of coal and the seventh largest railroad in terms of revenue. The B&O, also a major coal carrier, ranks sixth in revenue.

Both trace their corporate lineage back to 1785 and George Washington. In that year Washington helped found the James River Co., ancestor of the C&O, and the Potomac Co., later owned by the B&O.

The B&O is the nation's oldest operating railroad. It was organized in 1827 and ran its first trains in 1830. In 1852 it was the largest private corporate enterprise in America.

State Police School Urged in Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A proposal to establish a state police school, available to all public and private police agencies, will be submitted to the legislature by Sen. Richard B. Metcalf, R-Columbus.

Metcalf, a first-term senator, said today that local police departments have expressed an interest in a well-rounded training program for all policemen.

The proposal, if passed, will benefit both rookie and veteran police officers. The school will cover all levels of criminology, and will eliminate much of the financial burden placed on local governments.

Variety Aplenty Slated on TV

Varied Entertainment Coming Up in Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Entertainment in widely varied form will be flooding the television channels during the next seven days.

Tackling the schedules chronologically, tonight there is another in the NBC American Heritage series (9-10 Eastern Standard Time), this called "The Invincible Teddy," and dealing with the debut of Theodore Roosevelt into politics. George Peppard plays young TR.

On Sunday, there is the annual professional football game on NBC from Los Angeles (3:45 p.m. to conclusion). This conflicts with the CBS "A Question of Chairs, The Challenge of American Education," about the evolution of our school system.

CBS's big, expensive special, "The Gershwin Years," with Maurice Chevalier, Frank Sinatra and Ethel Merman comes up Sunday night, 8-9:30, probably the highlight of the week.

Tuesday evening there's NBC's satirical revue, "Everybody's Doing It," with Art Carney and Alice Ghostley (10-11). And on Wednesday evening there is CBS' Show of the Month, an adaptation of "The Prisoner of Zenda," prototype of all Ruritania tales, with Christopher Plummer in the leading, dual role (8:30-10).

He was named at the society's annual meeting last week.

Other officers of the society are Dr. Frank Anderson, president-elect; Dr. E. L. Montgomery, secretary-treasurer; and Drs. Warren Hoffman, H. H. Swope and Frank Moore, members of the Board of Censors.

Named delegate to the state convention of the Ohio Medical Assn., to be held April 9-13 in Cincinnati, was Dr. Moore, with Dr. Montgomery as alternate delegate.

Original Inaugural Music Honors Jackie, Lady Bird

WASHINGTON (AP) — The repository of music for the inaugural balls here Jan. 20 will include three songs especially written for the occasion.

One is "Jacqueline" for the wife of President-elect John F. Kennedy, written by Gilda Davis and Mrs. Meyer Davis. Another is "Lady Bird," for the wife of Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson, written by Mrs. Hankins Fort. The third is "New Frontiers" for the incoming Kennedy administration, written by Bob Saffer and George Mysels.

The words released by the advisory committee for the inaugural ball are:

JACQUELINE
Jacqueline, Jacqueline, Jacqueline

She is charming, she is sweet
Jacqueline, Jacqueline, Jacqueline

When she smiles we're at her feet
Jacqueline, Jacqueline, Jacqueline

Loves to read and study books
Jacqueline Jacqueline, Jacqueline

She has a mind as well as looks
Jacqueline, Jacqueline, Jacqueline

She rides to the hounds, she she sails the sounds
Takes pictures and she paints
She speaks a dozen languages
With no complaints.

Jacqueline, Jacqueline, Jacqueline

She's as lovely as rose.
Jacqueline, Jacqueline, Jacqueline

She's First Lady the whole world knows.
LADY BIRD

I keep my eyes on the skies
With my dreams about Lady Bird

Her radiant glow is there I know
It always gleams, about Lady Bird

This lady fair with gracious air
Never leaves my mind.
Who could guess such loveliness
Would be my fortune to find?

My heart takes flight at the sight
Of my bright Lady Bird
To catch the ray of her gay eternal charms.

It's so hard to describe her—
Maybe "angel" is the word.
For Heaven conferred all its glories.

NEW FRONTIERS
Our country's spirit will prevail
Opening new frontiers.
With trust in God we shall not fail.

Opening new frontiers.
America! America! Land of the pioneers

Ever free and strong we will march along
Opening new frontiers.

CHORUS:
We'll make the world a better place
Opening new frontiers.

Junior Fair Funds To Be Asked of State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Fair Managers Association, ending a two-day convention, Thursday resolved to ask the state director of agriculture to request the legislature to renew funds for junior fair operations. In the past, the state has provided $1,000 to the county fairs for the younger groups.

Before their annual banquet, delegates elected Bryan P. Sandles of Springfield president to succeed Russell W. Alt, secretary of the Fairfield County fair. A manager of the Clark County fair, Sandles moved into office from the first vice presidency. Other officers elected were Merle Stacy of Marietta, first vice president; George Connelly, Wauseon, second vice president; Miss Goldie V. Scheible Dayton, executive secretary, and Henry G. Richards, Mount Vernon, treasurer.

Each of the two television cameras placed on the Tiros I weather satellite weighed about two pounds and was the size of a water glass.

Possession of Dope Brings Sentence

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — Oney J. Stephenson, 32, of Wiloughby, pleaded guilty today to a charge of possession of narcotics and was sentenced by Common Pleas Judge Floyd A. Collier to 2-15 years in the penitentiary.

He had waived action by the grand jury on the charge to ask trial by information.

A charge of possession of narcotics for sale, still pending against him, will be presented to the grand jury meeting Feb. 15.

Stephenson was arrested by the Highway Patrol last Oct. 13 on the tip of a Bowling Green State University coed who said he had proposed that she peddle narcotics on the campus.
